The program over, the audience scattered to various parts of the hall where attractive booths had been arranged to lure the dimes and quarters from not unwillin pockets for the benefit of the local church.

The booths were presided over by dainty garbed maids and matrons whose smiling faces did as much to attract customers as the wares which they sold.

Oakland Horse Buyer Mudered and Robbed on Canyon Road near Fernbrook Park

With his head almost severed from his body by being slashed with some sharp instrument, and with two other horrible gashes in his neck and two gunshot wounds in his chest and a big bruise on his head the body of Ed. Moore, an Oakland negro, was found in the brush near the flume by the gum trees above Fernbrook Park, this morning by Tom Southern, a lad hunting quail.

The man was evidenty murdered early in the night for the body was quite cold when found.

The dead man was well dressed and was about 35 years of age He evidently was driving from Sunol to Niles and was lured from his buggy which was tied nearby, by the murderer.

At first it was believed that Moore had committed suicide, but as a thorough search of the scene failed to reveal the weapon with which the deed was done and as the nature of the wounds were such that it seemed improbable that they were self-inflicted, the suicide theory was abandoned and a search started for the murderer.

Moore rented the rig in Oakland Thursday to drive to Livermore to purchase a horse and had about $70.00 in his possegsion at that time.

At press time the sheriffs office is working on a clue which it is believed will result in an arrest in a few hours.

THE STATE NON-PARTISAN LAW

By C. C. YOUNG

Speaker of the Assembly and Author of the Law

The Direct Primary Law—popularly known as the "Non-Partisan Law"—to be voted on the 26th of this month—is awakening lively interest throughout the State. Brief answers to some of the questions asked regarding it are of intrest at this time.

What is the law on which [illegible] vote?

The law to be voted on is the new Direct Primary Law and was passed by the last legislature to replace the former Direct Primary Law. This new law would now be in effect except for the referendum, which delays its operation until the people vote on it at the coming election. The vote is not on the referendum, but directly on the law itself. Those who favor the law will vote "YES"; those who oppose the law will vote "NO".

How does the new Primary Law differ from the old one?

The new Primary Law is a carefully prepared revision of the old law. Both laws will be found in the first half of the pamphlet now being sent out to voters by the county clerks. The new law is admitted by everybody to be simpler, celarer and more workable than the old law. No objection has been made to it from any source except to the additional offices it makes non-partisan.

What are these additional non-partisan offices?

The old law made non-partisan in California 17 State and Districts offices and 2300 county and township offices. Besides these non-partisan offices, school offices and the like—which are filled by non-partisan election,—thus making a total of over 16,000 non-partisan offices in the State.

The new primary law adds to this number the 7 remaining state offices, the members of the Board of Equalization, and the 120 members of the state legislature. The number of offices already non-partisan comprises over ninety-nine percent of all the offices in the state; the number added by this law comprises less than one percent.

Why does this law make these additional offices non-partisan?

For exactly the same reason that the other 16,000 offices have previously been made non-partisan,—because they have to do solely wth the business of the State and have absolutely no connection with any national issues (such as the tariff and the like) on which national political parties are founded.

Because the qualification the people require of a city, a county, a State official is his own personal integrity, efficiency and fitness of his position rather that his membership in any national political party; and because experience has proved that we can get better service by electing our officials on their own individual merits than we can by choosing them because of their party tags.

What does the law provide as to national offices?

The ballot title of the law to be voted on answers this question. Every offices having any possilbe connection with national affairs or with the management of national political parties, is made partisan under this law. These offices include United States snators, representatives in congress, presidential electors, delegates to national party conventins,and the party committeemen of each party forming the State Committee in charge of the party's welfare.

The one new feature of this law as far as non-partisanship is concerned consists upon the fundamental differences between these national party offices and the 16131 local and state offices which deal, not with national affairs and the parties founded on national issues, but solely with the internal business affairs of the state.

Does this law destroy national parties?

This slight extension of non-partisanship cannot possibly affect national political parties in any particular. To inject national parties into local or state affairs is to inject a false issue, which is injurious both to those affairs and to the parties themselves. To remove this false issue is to help the parties instead of hurting them.

No government in the world except the United States has ever pretended to permit its national parties to apply to anything else than its national affairs. The application in our country of national parties to local affairs has been brought about by the professional politician in his own interest, and is logically indefensible.

The removal of the party tag from ninety-inine percent of our state and local offices has not harmed national parties, and they will not be harmed now by completing the job and removing the party tag from the remaining one percent. Those who claim otherwise do so through a misunderstanding of what this law really contains.

To establish non-partisanship in State affairs and to uphold partisanship in National affairs, vote "YES" on No. 1 and No. 2 of the ballot on October 26, next.

The State non-partisan measures to be voted upon on October 26 next, will be No. 1 and No. 2 on the ballot. Those who support the measures will vote "YES" upon both of them. Those who oppose them will vote "NO".

Jas. A. Easterday Passes away Suddenly

The many friends of James A. Easterly were shocked to learn of his death in an Oakland hospital Wednesday night.

Mr. Easterly was [illegible] while returning home to Niles from a two week's vacation at Moss Beach. He was just arising from his lunch Tuesday, intending to come home that afternoon when he fell unconscious. He was rushed to Providence Hospital by his wife who accompanied him, where the doctor diagnosed his case as paralysis of the bowels and gave no hope for his recovery. Word was immediately sent to relatives that the end was near and to hasten to his bedside.

At midnight Wednesday Mr. Easterly passed away.

The deceased was a native of San Jose, California, and came to Niles when a child and resided here ever since.

In 1890 he was married to Miss Icott and two children were born to the couple.

Mr. Easterly always enjoyed good health until seven yers ago when he was stricken with stomach trouble, from which he never fully recovered. About three years ago a recurrance of the old trouble threatened to carry him off but his remarkable vitality carried him through until this last attack came on.

Mr. Easterly enjoyed the reputation of being in business in Niles longer than any one here at the present time and during his life here won a host of friends who note his passing with the deepest sorrow.

Te deceased was 47 years of age and is survived by a widow and two children, Lloyd Easterly who is employed in Los Angeles and Mrs. Geo. Rose of Niles.

The funeral will take place today. Interment in Irvington cemetary.

ALAMEDA COUNTY IDEAL FOR TRUCK GARDENING

As a district for truck gardening, Alameda county is one of the foremost counties of California. Since the installation of the State exhibit in the Palace of Agriculture at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition Alameda county has actively competed with the entire world in the showing of fresh garden truck. The features of the exhibit are changed almost daily and fresh vegetables in season form a great part of the counties's showing.

The county is exhibiting a large feature of grain and cereals. A special showing is made of wheat, black and white oats, Indian and Egyptian and Kaffir corn. In addition the county is making a splendid exhibit along seed lines. The county possesses some of the extensive seed farms of the state and their products are distributed throughout the civilized world.

A separate feature has been made of the many varieties of beans raised in the county. More than two dozen varieties are now on exhibit and it is probable that several more will be added.

Alameda county cultivated celerey extensively. A great acreage is devoted to this product and it is exported from the county by the carload. Among the fresh vegetables shown are celery, corn, cauliflower, rhubarb, asparagus, egg plant, cabbage, cucumbers, lima beans, carrots, onions, peppers, tomatoes, turnips, peas, potatoes, kale and sweet potatoes.

The county is one of the strongest in the state on the cultivation of artichokes. Alameda artichokes are famous the world over and are annually exported to the East, Europe and South America. Alameda, Alviso and Centerville are three of the districts in the county which are largely contributing to the exhibit. Centerville, Alarado, Irvington and the Pleasanton districts are the main grain and cereal contributors.

The county's equitable climate and her rich soil make the district one of the very finest in the world from an agricultural standpoint. It has been estimated in point of years by the United States Department of Agriculture that the soil of certain county districts produce more abundantly than the soil of any other county in the entire United States.

Alameda county is an abundant producer of good alfalfa consequently it ranks high as a dairy county. Many dairies and a large number of creameries and cheese factories have been in existence for years and the industry is annually on the increase.

Hog, cattle, horse and poultry raising are some of the main industries of the county. These products are of exceptional quality and always demand a good price on the market.

The wines of the county are recognized as among the standard brands of the State. There are several large wineries and a large number of smaller ones in the county. Both sweet and dry wines are made.

As a whole Alameda county is one of the best agricultural counties of California and is growing in favor with the Eastern settlers who are making investments there. Hops are raised extensively in many districts of the county and there are very few that cannot be successfully cultivated in Alameda county.

Flyless City Can Be Made a Reality

ALTHOUGH the term "flyless city" generally has been used in a utopianistic sense, with no one considering seriously the possibility of a community being entirely rid of the insects, health authorities all over the country are beginning to believe that such a condition may be brought about in a city or town where everybody engages in starving or swatting the pest.

One of the cities which have conducted a vigorous warfare on the fly for several seasons is Cleveland. Health officials there have issued a bulletin in which they say that Cleveland will be entirely free from flies as soon as every citizen sees that his premises are maintained in a sanitary condition, that his garbage can is kept constantly covered, that his house is properly screened and that other simple suggestions for eradicating the fly are carried out.

Teachers Visit High School

Mr. Wahl Talks To Congregation

Mr. Wahl, third Vice President of Alameda County Christian Endeavor Society talked to the members of the Congregational Sunday School las Sunday morning and also to the congregation at the morning service on the work that Christian Endeavorers were doing all over the world.

Mr. Wahl urged the local church to organize an intermediate society here and pointed out that the hope of every Cchurch was in its young people and that Christian Endeavor work showed them how to put into practice the things learned in Sunday School.

As a result of Mr. Wahl's talk, a special meeting was held in the Church Wednesday and it was decided to start the work off with a meeting at 7:00 o'clock at which time a permanent organization will be formed.

During the evening R. O Moyer rendered several selections in his usually pleasing manner and E. V. Weller pleased the gathering greatly by several humorous recitations.

VOTE ON THE AMENDMENTS

It is the duty of every voter to cast his ballot on the tmendments on October 26. The proposed changes are very important and no voter should neglect one way or the other. Neglecting to vote is bad enough but the voter who votes no on a proposition because he has not taken the time to understand what he is voting on is guilty of a worse offense against good citizenship. It is better not to vote at all than to vote no because of a lack of understanding. Each voter will receive a pamphlet containing the arguments for and against each proposition. The arguments are not long and can easily be read before election time. Read the arguments and then vote as a good citizen should.

OUR STAND ON OCTOBER ELECTION

The Press after considering the eleven different propositions to be voted on on October 26, believes that it is safe to vote yes on all the amendments except the third which makes the term of superior judges twelve years instead of six as at present. We would vote yes on all but number three. On that we would vote no.

NON-PARTISANSHIP

In the interest of good government in the State we urge all voters to vote Yes on proposition No. 1, the Direct Primary Law. This law was passed by the last legislature and is held up in a referendum petition advocated by what few relics are left of the old machine that ran this state in the interest of "big business" before the revolution of 1910. The defeat of this law will throw our whole primary and general election system into confusion and pave the way for a return to the old convention system with all its attendant evils. All city officials, County officials, township officials, all state judges and school officers are now elected in non-partisanship fashion. The new law simply adds seven more State officials to the non-partisan list. If carried it will harmonize with our recent registration system and will help to keep permanently out of control those who try to capitalize party names for their own interests. A vote for No. 1 is a vote for good government. Vote Yes on No. 1 and No. 2.

SPRING VALLEY TACTICS

Last week when Attorney Nourse of the Alameda County Water District endeavored to have the injunction suit set for trial Attorney Olney of the Spring Valley Water Co. objected to the case being tried before an Alameda County judge. Another two weeks delay was secured in his way while an attempt is being made to secure an outside judge to try the case. The policy of the Spring Valley all along has been obstruction and delay while it has hurried along as fast as possible the construction of the Calveras dam. There is one point that the people of the district should keep in mind, however, and that is that even though the dam is being built, the protection of our water rights dates from the filingof the suit on April 17 last.

The objection to an Alameda judge is undoubtedly a tribute to the force of public opinion in this county on this question. The more Spring Valley's plans are held up to the light the worse they look for Alameda County. This county has everything to lose and nothing to gain by having its water drained away to San Francisco. The fight our district is making to save the county's water supply has already attracted favorable attention in Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley. It is crystallizing sentiment in favor of the Hetch Hetchy project for San Francisco. Unless Spring Valley unloads upon San Francisco within the next year or two, public sentiment on both sides of the bay will force the completion of the Hetch Hetchy project.

Although it has been balked in its recall scheme temporarily, we may expect to see other efforts made to delay or avoid the trial of our injunction suit. It is to the advantage of our district to force the suit to trial in order that the truth in the water situation may be made known. It is to Spring Valley's advantage to block the suit in every way.

A FOOLISH LIE

The statement constautly made that the Alameda County Water district was harmed through the assistance of City Attorney Percy Long and Engineer Dockweiter of San Francisco is an extremely foolish one. The only work in which the editor of the Press cooperated with Long and Dockweiter was to help show the national government that the carrying out of Spring Valley's plans would greatly injure our section. Both these gentlemen were given to understand that we would work with them so long as it was to the interest of our district to do so and also that whenever they advocated a policy that threatened our district we would oppose them. When they worked for Hetch Hetchy we were with them. When they worked for the Spring Valley or the Peoples Water Co. as against our section we have opposed them and so far successfully.

The charge of politics is absolutely silly for no one is attempting to use the district for political purposes. The real responsibility for the organization of the district is Spring Valley's greed.

The trial of the injunction suit will enable the Spring Valley to show how the impounding of water in the Calveras dam will cause more water to flow down Alavrado Creek. As the Calveras and upper Alameda system which is to be divided into the dam comprise at least 50 per cent of the flood waters according to Spring Valley reports it is rather difficult to see where the increase will come from. If the dam is to be such a benefit to this section why does the Spring Valley seek to delay the trial?

The announcement that President Wilson favors the restoration of the tax on sugar means much to Washington Township. It looks as if the beet sugar industry will escape destruction after all. From present prospects the sugar factory at Alvarado will remain a permanent industry of the township.

Evidently the Niles delegation to the Associated Chambers of Commerce had a spurt of virtuous indignation last week. They should remember that if the roll call of the meetings of the past three years were to be looked up that Niles would find itself living in a glass house. There is a better way than finding fault with men who have given a great deal of time in the past to the public affairs of the township. Use a little good nature, do a little rustling before the monthly meeting and the boys will come through alright.

Housefly Most Culpable of Insects

DR. JOSEPH M'FARLAND, professor of pathology and bacteriology in the Medico-Chirurgical college in Philadelphia, says that the housefly is one of the most culpable of the insects distributing disease among men. As an agency for tuberculosis he regards it as especially ugly, and he points to cases where it has been the means of carrying blood parasites from one wound to another.

He says that the tsetse fly of South Africa is dangerous to imported animals only because it has been feeding upon the blood of wild animals that have a taint; that after a few days in confinement the bite of the fly causes little discomfort for animals, the reason being that the poisonous germs in the fly's stomach have been digested. That the ordinary fly is a spreader of disease, too, he shows in the statement that the fly frequently becomes the victim of epidemics that kill men and die from the same diseases that they spread.

SCHOOL NOTES

Carl Zwissig who has been suffering from an attack of rheumatism, was unable to attend school the last week.

Margaret Duffy, Louis Aftergut, and Joe Zwissig were absent on account of sickness.

Miss Wills and Miss Sandholdt were amongst the vast audience which heard the violin concert given by Kriesler at the Greek Theatre. Saturday evening.

Last Monday morning Pete Rose presented the school with a souvenir pebble of the Livermore football field. The "Pebble" as Pete called it weighed about 5 pounds. Not only were Washington High boys in trying to score have to dodge the Livermore players but were forced to climb over such obsracles as these five pound pebbles.

The agriculture class are at present interested in a number of lantern slides of some thoroughbred cattle.

Quite a few of the pupils followed the team to Livermore Saturday. Some went on the train while others used automobiles as a means of conveyance. They were given plenty of opportunity of rooting for their favorites, and sure did all that was in their power to win the game.

W. H. S. RECEPTION GREAT SUCCESS

The Faculty of Washington Union High School held a reception for the Grammar school teachers of Washington Township last Wednesday evening.

About twenty teachers of the community were were the guests of the evening. The time was pleasantly spent in whist and dancing. A musical number by Mr. Moyer and a recitation by Mr. Weller were the most enjoyable features of the evenings programme.

Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

It is felt by the high school teachers that this will tend to bring about a closer connection between them and the grammar school teachers.

SPORTS

WASHINGTON 5—LIVERMORE 5

In the second game of the league series Washington and Livermore played a tie game, the score at the end standing 5 all. The game was fast from the beginning to the end and was hard fought oo both sides. The players on both sides were kept back on account of the slowness of the field, which is an old creek bed, and has a great many rocks upon it.

Washington kicked off in the first half and the ball stayed in the middle of the field, with Livermore playing an offensive game and steadily making short gains. Washington's forward could not seem to get started and were being outscrummed almost two to one.

About 15 minutes after the half had started Livermore received the ball from a lineout and passed it out to Leake who went over for the first score. Gardella converted from an easy angle. After the ball was kicked off again Livermore still kept up its offensive game and time and again started passing and dribbling rushes which were stopped by the good work of some of Washington's players. The half ended without any more scoring and it looked to every one as tho Washington would suffer its first defeat in the league games.

After a ten minute rest, Livermore kicked off and the ball was kicked into touch in Livermore's territory. The Washington players seemed to have more fight in this half and started to playing an offensive game. Time and again the forwards hooked the ball out to the backfield only to have them fumble when score seemed certain. Washington kept on Livermore's 25 yard line for nearly 15 minutes but were unable to take the ball over the line altho they were fighting hard and trying for all that was in them. Washington was given a free kick on the 25 yard line but Rose failed to convert.

About ten minutes before time was called Leake broke thru with a dribbling rush and worked the ball into Washington's territory. It was only for a moment tho as the ball was kicked back into Livermore's territory on the very next play.

From that time on Washington began showing it's true form and literally played Livermore off it's feet. From a lineout a passing rush was started in whlch Joe Zwissig went over the line for a try. Rose converted making the score a tie.

Washington having new life put in them by the score again went after Livermore and carried the ball into their territory right after the kick off. Twice the ball was within a yard from going over the line but on each occasion Livermore's defense held.

The game ended with both teams fighting hard on Livermore's 5 yard line.

The teams lined up as follows:

Livermore:- Forwards; Weber, Smith, Monahan, Moy, Hageman, J. Kelly R. Kelly, and Crane. Backs; Cardella, Falvey, Leake, Grana, Ericson, Buffham, and C. Kelly.

Washington;- Forwards, Blacow, Barnard, May, Costa, Carr, Norris, Hawes, und Snow. Backs; Valencia, Lewis, F. Zwissig. J. Zwissig, Falk, Logan, Mickle and Rose

ATHELETIC NOTES

Pete Douglass who has played for three years on the California varsity refereed the game and proved satisfactory to both sides.

Blacow injured his shoulder in the firsf half and was taken out of the game. His place was ably filled by Costa.

The sporting editor asked Capt. Blacow for his opinion of the game, but the language in which he expressed it was not able to pass the board of censorship.

To-day Hayward meets Washington at Centerville and a great game is looked for. These two teams have always given the fans a run for their money where-ever they have met and will surely do the same this time. The game will start at 2:30 p. m., and any one that has chance to see this should not fail.

The second team is still hard at work preparing for their games in the future. Every Tuesday and Friday they have quite a squad out for practice.

Wednesday night Oct. 6th quite a few of the alumni were at school to help put the first team in condition for Saturday's game.

Richmond defeated Hayward 3 to 0 last Saturday. The game was played in Oakland and from all reports must have been well played.

On Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 13 the alumni players again paid the school a visit. The members of the team and the school appreciate the help which these graduates have given us.

BASE BALL

By EDWARD W. FRIES, Sporting Editor

DOLAN STARS IN GREAT NILES VICTORY

It was Dolan's masterly pitching that kept the Olympic club from scoring more than 3 runs and it was also Dolan's big bat that paved the way to a Niles victory in last Sunday's game after 11 innings of the best baseball seen in Washington Township in many moons.

It was certainly a big day for Dolan, the "Little Red Head" pitching the brand of ball that last year stamped him the class of the bushes. He had the Olympic boys eating out of his hand striking out 15 of them and allowed but six widely scattered hits.

But for a lucky bounce of a ball hit by Kelley, in the first inning after 2 men were down that carried the ball over the left field fence, and a couple of infield errors in the 5th Dolan would have escaped without a run being scored upon him. Besides pitching great ball Dolan stepped up to the plate in the 3rd inning and slammed the ball to the far corner in center field for a legitimate home run. Again in the 11th with Burroughs on 1st as the result of a base on balls it was Dolan's single that placed him on second where he scored the winning run on Tubb's timely single to right.

We might also mention a few words about Dolan's battery mate. This fellow Tubbs has added considerable strength to the Indians line-up. He handled Dolan's delivery in flawless style and captured several difficult fouls near the stand. He drove in the winning run in the 11th inning, and has worked his way into the favor of all those who have seen him in action.

Medcraft the young pitcher of the Olympic Club also twirled a masterly game and would ordinarily win 9 out of 10 games if he pitches like he did Sunday. He fanned 10 of the Indians, and worked his way out of a good many tight places. He was given good support by his fellow players, who represented one of the best clubs that have visited Niles in a long while. They are a clean, gentlemanly bunch, and above all know how to play the national pastime, and the local management will endeavor to have them return to Niles in the very near future.

Kelley knocked his home run in the first inning after 2 men were out, and altho Esola led off with a hit in Niles half of the same inning he was unable to get around. Niles tied it up in the 2nd when Dolan reached 1st on Manning's error of his hard hit grounder was sacrificed to 2nd by Tubbs and scored on Breslauer's double to right.

Niles went ahead in the 4th when Dolan cracked out a home run, but the Olympic Club came right back and scored 2 runs in the 5th, altho the side should have been retired without any trouble as a couple of errors coupled with hits by Manning and Kelley put Dolan in bad.

After this inning the visitors did not get a hit off Dolan's delivery until [illegible] when Manning beat out an infield hit that Dolan could not field in time to retire the fleet-footed runner.

Niles tied up the count in the 7th when Esola led off with a single to right. Robinson was also credited with a hit when his attempted sacrifice was not fielded in time to retire him at 1st. Burroughs sacrificed both runners along and then Medcraft uncorked a wild pitch that brought Esola over with the tying run. Robinson was caught at the plate when Fries hit on that the pitcher knocked down and threw to the catcher in time to retire the Niles 1st baseman. There was no more scoring until the 11th when the game was broken up as told above.

The crowd was a poor one, there being about a dozen Niles fans out. What is the matter, NILES?

Johns umpired a good game and has been engaged to umpire next Sunday's game with the Herberts at Sullivan Park. Game called at 2:30 promptly.

Last Sunday the Olympic Club missed the morning train and did not arrive until 2:40. They dressed on the train and play was called shortly after they had arrived on the scene. The Herberts will arrive in Niles at 10:30 A. M. Sunday morning and will be ready to start promptly at 2:30 P. M.

Come out, everybody.

NOTES FROM NILES ESSANAY INDIANS

Niles won again last Sunday but not until after a hard battle with the Olympic Club.

It was one of the best games played in Washington Township in many a day.

Fodder Dolan was the star of the day. He struck out 15 men and allowed only 6 hits in the entire 11 innings. He also slammed out a home run and a single and scored 2 of the Indians 4 runs. It sure was a Red Head" Day.

Again, but few Niles fans were out. They really do not deserve a ball club.

Fodder Dolan's admirers are attempting to make Foster and Dutch Leonard share with the little "Red Head" in the Hall of Fame.

Medcraft the young right-hander of the Olympic club is a promising twirler. He made 10 of the Essanay Indians join the army last Sunday.

There should be a large crowd out next Sunday to see the Indians battle with the strong Herberts of San Francisco.

The Herberts are the most popular bunch that has ever played in Niles.

We might mention that the Olympic Club crowd are a fine bunch of boys. They are gentlemen in every sense of the word and made many friends by their sportsmanlike behavior; also by their classy playing last Sunday.

Tubbs was there in the pinch last Sunday, his hit to right field bringing over Burroughs with the winning run. Tubbs handled Dolan's delivery in faultless fashion, also grabbing a couple of difficult foul flies. This boy is a tower of strength to the Niles Club.

Some time ago Eddie Fries wrote an article roasting the Pleasanton Management and censured his remarks rather directly at one Mr. Gale. Since that time we have learned that it was not all Mr. Gale's fault, but principally the bunch of directors that he had to deal with. Too bad those fellows want to meddle with baseball when they know so little about the game. We apologize, Mr. Gale, but that still goes for the Pleasanton Management.

Pleasanton closed their season a week ago Sunday. It was a disastrous season financially, tho successful as far as games won and lost was concerned. They had a good ball club and the fans should have supported the club better than they did. Wake up! NILES, DON'T BE LIKE PLEASANTON. Support your ball club.

Johns will umpire the game next Sunday so the game should be played throughout with the usual run of kicking absent, as was last Sunday's game. Johns fills the bill to the satisfaction of everyone.

Medcraft also made a circus catch that the crowd appreciated and he was given a big hand for the stop.

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH THE NILES FANS?

Niles certainly does not deserve a ball club. Last Sunday there were about a dozen Niles fans out. It surely is not the fault of the club, for they have one of the best line-ups that has ever represented the Canyon City.

Get next to yourselves, and don't be like Pleasanton. Wake up and support your team.

Next Sunday the popular "Herberts" of Frisco will be seen at Sullivan Park, Niles. The Herberts are well known here and will bring a number of Northwestern Leaguers along with them. Get out once, it will do you good to root for the home team. Johns will umpire, and there should be little cause for complaint as his decisions met with popular favor all around last Sunday.

Game called at 2:30 P. M.
